

NORTH SHORE
Crisis Services Society

Compassion. Solutions. Confidence.

PROGRAM AND SUPPORT UPDATE RELATED TO COVID-19: March 24, 2020

The health and safety of our staff, clients, volunteers, and our broader community is our top priority.

OPEN: SAGE HOUSE

SAGE Transition House and our 24-hour Women's Support Line remain open: 604-987-3374

OPEN REMOTELY: OUTREACH PROGRAMS

Remote services or over-the-phone services are available for the programs listed below. The office itself are closed to the public effective March 17th, 2020. Please contact these programs directly by email or phone (see the Programs page for the contact information).

- Outreach Services (Pantea: 604-786-8508)
- Multicultural Outreach Services (Pantea: 604-786-8508)
- Homeless Prevention Program (Alyzeh: 604-786-4232)
- Adolescent & Children's Empowerment (PEACE) Program (Allison: 604-786-7981, or Brooke: 604-786-7487)

We will continue to support our clients, and we will continue to maintain the day to day operations of North Shore Crisis Services Society with staff working remotely or on an essential services schedule.

CLOSED: GOOD STUFF CONNECTION CLOTHING PROGRAM AND THRIFT STORE

The Good Stuff Connection Clothing Program and Thrift Store at 154 West 3rd Street will be closed until further notice. We are unable to receive donation during the closure.

Thank you for your understanding. We will post updates, and plans for re-opening our office and Good Stuff Connection location. In the meantime, if you need us, please contact our office by phone at 604-987-0366 and we will return your message as soon as possible or contact us by email at lreynolds@nscss.net
